these services, which they may perceive as negative. We will use settlement sector governance

- The approach we have proposed for CFP 2024, and measures to increase consistency and minimize duplication in services, is expected to contribute to mitigate impacts on Settlement Program clients

COMMUNICATIONS IMPLICATIONS:

- The eligibility criteria for CFP 2024 is not expected to generate public media interest outside of the Settlement and Resettlement sectors, although unsuccessful organizations may approach media outlets to voice their dissatisfaction. A responsive communications approach is recommended, with key messages developed that will outline the CFP 2024 priorities, as well as underscore the plans in place to ensure the integrity and effectiveness of the process and the continuity of settlement services.
